New data from Census 2001 to be released on Wednesday 4 September

Selected second release 2001 Census results at the Australia, States and Territories levels will be released by the Australian Bureau of Statistics (ABS) on Wednesday 4 September.

The release, in the form of the summary publication Census, Second Release, Summary Publication (cat. no. 2046.0) will contain data about Labour Force Status, Industry of Employment, Occupation and Qualifications. Data are presented in a narrative form. This summary publication also contains comparative data from the 1991, 1996 and 2001 Censuses where appropriate.

This publication will be a Web-based release. No hard copies will be boxed at the Federal Parliamentary Press Gallery.

You will be able to view 2046.0 on this site after 11.30am on Wednesday 4 September, 2002.

Please note that 4 September is only a partial release of second release data variables. The main ABS release containing all of the second release 2001 Census data, for all local regions of Australia, will be released on Tuesday 19 November.
